SKILLS

LYNNE IS PASSIONATE ABOUT SUPPORTING TECHNICAL AND CREATIVE PROFESSIONALS AND LEADERS IN THEIR PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL GROWTH. She enjoys working with people as they make career choices and navigate challenges in their professional life. Through her practice of Co-Active Coaching she challenges her clients to discover and explore hidden gems of insight that enable them to achieve their greatest potential. With a focus on clarity of objectives and personal transformation, she helps leaders strengthen their leadership, management, relationship and influence skills and achieve desired outcomes for themselves and their teams. For those in transition, she guides full and active exploration of the many possibilities to achieve a fulfilling and successful future.

Lynne brings to her coaching practice over 25 years experience in HR, OD, Staffing, and Training in organizations ranging from Fortune 50 to highly creative start-ups. In addition to successfully leading HR organizations, she has lead corporate teambuilding and restructurings, the creation of purpose statements, alignment of teams and senior leadership to business goals, rebranding and workplace remodel projects.

Lynne's focus is on the individual and their ability to tap into their own creativity and resourcefulness to achieve success. With the wisdom developed through her own career, Lynne is known for her intuition and ability to ask insightful and powerful questions that enable her clients to transform their personal and professional lives.
